

Matrix Magic Workshop

with Lindy Podzuweit

2011

Lindy Podzuweit is coming to Canberra in November 2011. Be one of the first in the ACT to experience her acclaimed Matrix Magic Workshop

Find out how to use Capacity Matrices, based on David Langford's four stages of learning: information, knowledge, know-how and wisdom. This half-day workshop will benefit any teacher who wants to:

- ◊ improve students' spelling and reading
- ◊ inspire all students to learn all their tables
 - ◊ unlock students' motivation to learn
 - ◊ teach students how to learn
- ◊ help students develop their own learning styles
- ◊ increase students' responsibility for their own learning
- ◊ learn about David Langford's four stages of learning and learn how to use Capacity Matrices effectively

Lindy Podzuweit

Lindy Podzuweit has worked as a teacher in South Australia since 1977. Lindy started using David Langford's four stages of learning and learning matrix methodology in 2002. This radical teaching approach profoundly changed the learning outcomes of the children she taught.

Past Participants say...

I just had to tell you how great the matrices are working with my year 6/7s. After the workshop last term I really didn't hold out much hope for my year sevens using the spelling matrix but they really cannot get enough of it. Even the most disruptive in the class are asking if they can do their spelling. Next week the Tables matrix. Thank you for the opportunity to improve the students' learning through this system.

Rod Fraser

What amazes me most is that this truly is a differentiated program - each child is working on exactly what they need to be working on. It is amazing to watch - and watch I do because while they are working you could hear a pin drop in my room they are each so actively involved in gaining wisdom! And yes, they too ask if they can work on matrix during activity time!
